Requirements for Trainees

A. Personality Attributes: All trainees must be mature, perceptive, insightful individuals able to restrain themselves from using counsellees in a re-enactment of their own conflicts. Prior to training, the Commitment to Professional Conduct as a Hope Alive Group Counsellor; Mt. Joy Statement of Faith and My Declaration of Life must be read and agreed to by the applicant. (Copies of these may be obtained through your local course organizers)

B. Finances: Because of the urgent need, we are committed to keeping costs low. These vary with the country in which the course is taught. Scholarships and bursaries may be available on application. Mt Joy College, depending on the size of the class, the costs are: Residential costs ($450 USD) and their tuition fees (Level I $500 USD / person, plus training manuals), and contribute to travelling/ accommodation costs of their teachers.

Mount Joy College

International Office

P.O. Box 27103
750 Goldstream Avenue
Victoria, B.C. CANADA V9B 5S4
Tel: (250) 642-1848
Fax: (250) 642-1841
email: mtjoycollege@islandnet.com
websites: www.mtjoycollege.com and www.messengers2.com

© 2011 Mount Joy College. All rights reserved

Application Forms

Trainees need to book a training position well in advance. A 20% deposit is required upon application. This deposit will be refunded if you are not accepted for training, or if you cancel your registration four weeks or more before your course begins.

Course Locations and Dates

Contact the local Hope Alive affiliate or Mount Joy College, Canada for training dates and locations.

Where to Apply

Application forms are available at the website: www.mtjoycollege.com or you may check with your nearest Hope Alive office or affiliate, or contact Mount Joy College, Canada at our enclosed address.

Training Process

To organize a training course in your area, contact Mount Joy College Canada to request for a Training Coordinator's Brochure

Mount Joy

College

Hope Alive Level I

Training In Group Counseling For Counsellors Of Men and Women Damaged By Child Abuse, Neglect, and Pregnancy Losses, especially Abortion