Philip Ney, Pioneer Publishing, 28/12/08

Am D7 Am D7
Chorus Two O nine, will it be fine?
Am D7 Am D7
Be a good year to laugh and dine?
E Am
Or will it be bad?
E Am
And drive you mad.

- A E
1. Didn't we have just a wonderful, beautiful Christmas,
A
Lovely presents all around the tree?
D
Bethlehem's star shinning down upon us,
A E A
So in the darkness, everyone may see.
2. Don't you think the Lord above is happy,
When we say we really will love Him?
He likes it when we adore His own dear baby.
But ignoring all the others is a sin.
3. God makes every child in His image.
Every baby lying in the womb.
Every tiny infant made like Jesus,
The uterus was never meant a tomb.
4. We can only have a happy new year.
If we love each child like our Lord.
God will then be with us and will cheer us.
Otherwise He brings us a sharp sword.

Chorus. 2009 will the Son shine,
Will He be happy as we drink new wine?
Or will He be sad?
Now save each wee tad.
