

Christ Is Coming Mighty Soon

Logger's caulks boot song and dance.

Words and Music by Philip G. Ney

The musical score is written in treble clef with a key signature of three sharps (F#, C#, G#) and a 4/4 time signature. It consists of five staves of music. Above the first staff are chords E and A. Above the second staff are chords A, E, and E7. Above the third staff are chords A, E, E7, and A. Above the fourth staff are chords D, A, and D. Above the fifth staff is chord E. The lyrics are written below the notes.

1. Christ is com-ing migh - ty soon, that's for sure. Christ is com-ing migh - ty soon, open the door. Christ is coming migh - ty soon. Could be mid-night, could be noon. All will dance to His tune, that's ___ for sure. And we'll tri-umph in His name. This old world won't be the same. No more cry-ing, guilt or shame an - y more. _____

2. The time is running very short , that's for sure.
The time is running very short, close the door.
The time is running very short,
Are you ready? Are you dressed,
Inside out to look your best? Are you pure?
And we'll fly with Him to heaven.
Not by counting up to seven,
But by the life He's given, ever more.....

3. Jesus Christ Redeemer, King, that's for sure.
Jesus Christ Redeemer, King and much more.
Jesus Christ Redeemer King,
Dance with us and let us sing.
Let it echo, let it ring, more's in store.
And we'll stand before God's throne.
He'll say "righteous, let him live"
For his life my Son atoned, open the door.....

4. Did you know Christ died for you, that's for sure?
Did you know Christ rose for you, in days of yore?
Did you know Christ pleads for you?
Picks you up when you are blue.
Heals the sick and aids the poor, that's for sure.
When He comes to take us home,
We will sing before His throne,
We will never want to roam, any more.....