

Jesus Christ the King of Glory

Words and Music by Philip G. Ney

The musical score is written in treble clef with a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a 3/4 time signature. It consists of five staves of music. The first staff begins with a D minor chord (Dm) and contains the first line of the melody. The second staff continues the melody and includes a G minor chord (Gm) and a D minor chord (Dm). The third staff includes an A minor chord (Am) and a D minor chord (Dm). The fourth staff includes a D minor chord (Dm) and a G minor chord (Gm). The fifth staff includes an A minor chord (Am) and a D minor chord (Dm). The lyrics are: "1. Je - sus Christ the King of Glo - ry, came as a babe to Beth - le - hem. Lived on the earth to show God's mer - cy, died on a cross to save all men. He who knows our grey to - mor - rows, He who bore our griefs and sor - rows. Je - sus Christ - can be your Sar - iour. Why don't you o - pen up your heart. Why don't you o - - - - - pen up your heart?"

1. Je - sus Christ the King of Glo - ry, came as a babe to Beth - le - hem. Lived on the

5 earth to show God's mer - cy, died on a cross to save all men. He who

9 knows our grey to - mor - rows, He who bore our griefs and sor - rows. Je - sus

Christ - can be your Sar - iour. Why don't you o - pen up your heart. Why don't you o - - - - - pen up your heart?

2. Jesus Christ the Friend of sinners,
Welcomes all those who come to Him.
Don't you hear Him calling to you?
He can now free you from all sin.
Jesus hopes that we will choose Him,
To be our Lord and Friend forever.
Jesus Christ can be your Saviour.
Why don't you open up your heart?
Why don't you open up your heart?