

MOUNT JOY COLLEGE

Training in Hope Alive Group Counselling for IHACA

July 17, 2010

Dear friend,

We understand you might be interested in the Hope Alive Level I counsellor training program. We are pleased to inform you that the next training is from September 26th through October 2nd, 2010 at Mount Joy College in Victoria, BC, Canada. We provide an intensive, experiential training course in the Hope Alive method of group counselling for adults who have been deeply damaged by childhood mistreatment and pregnancy losses. You are cordially invited to apply. We have enclosed an application form for your convenience.

The course costs are: tuition-$450.00 (or $400.00 if the application is sent 30 days before the beginning of the course), residential board and room-$450.00 ($400.00 if 30 days early). The cost of the training manual, theoretical book and various forms distributed during the course are in addition to the above mentioned costs. If you are unable to train with Mount Joy College on this date, please contact us for information on other training dates and locations.

We emphasise that this training is intensive and experiential. Our intent is to provide you with skills for a comprehensive knowledge base, a unique scientific and Christian theoretical structure and to help you gain insight into yourself. We recommend that you purchase the manual, Deeply Damaged, for advance preparation.

For further information regarding the course, material, Mount Joy College and/or travel please contact us by phone, fax or e-mail at the address below.

Application deadline is August 26th, 2010.

Yours sincerely,

Philip G. Ney, M.D., FRCP©
